

RAISING ADVANCEMENT AND PARITY FOR INFECTIOUS DISEASE RESEARCHERS (RAPID) PROGRAM

What is RAPID?

- A National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) all-expense-paid faculty development program that aims to enhance faculty career success and success in obtaining NIH or equivalent funding.
- One-year commitment
  - Virtual Summer Institute, July 12-23, 2021
  - 2-day Mid-Year Meeting
  - Second Summer Institute in 2022

Who is RAPID for?

- Research-oriented junior faculty and transitioning postdocs from groups underrepresented in the biomedical workforce, including women, persons with disabilities, underrepresented racial/ethnic minorities, and individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds

How can I apply?

- Complete the online application at rapid.ucsd.edu.
- Spots are limited, apply by March 1, 2021 to ensure that your application is reviewed.
  - If positions remain after this date, we will accept applications until all positions are filled.

APPLY TODAY @ RAPID.UCSD.EDU

Get the tools you need to build a successful academic career in infectious diseases.

RAPID
Raising Advancement and Parity
for Infectious Disease Researchers

Contact us:

UC San Diego RAPID Program Manager:

Naureen Rashid, MA

EMAIL hsfacaffairs@ucsd.edu | WEB rapid.ucsd.edu

UC San Diego
HEALTH SCIENCES
Office of Faculty Affairs